CURED TO STAY CURED. How a Barre Citizen Found Complete Freedom from Kidney Troubles. If you suffer from backache—From urinary disorders—From any disease of the kidneys, Be cured to stay cured. Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures. Barre people testify. Here's one case of it: Norman B. York of 4 Prospect street, Barre, Vt., says: "Several years ago I gave a statement for publication telling what Doan's Kidney Pills had done for me, and I can now say that on account of the permanent cure they made in my case I can more highly recommend them than ever. I had been subject for six years to kidney trouble, which I think was caused by a strain. I had severe pains in my back and a kidney weakness that showed these organs were affected. If I stooped it was with the greatest difficulty that I could regain an erect position. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at E. A. Drown's, and they proved wonderfully beneficial from the start. The pains in my back ceased and the action of the kidney secretions was regulated. During the years which have elapsed there has never been the slightest return of the trouble, and I think this is good evidence that Doan's Kidney Pills cure permanently." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Buckley of Boston Dies While Being Driven to His Summer Home in Winthrop. Boston, June 6.—The Boston police are investigating the death of William A. Buckley, the wealthy manager of the local office of the Provident Savings Life Insurance society, who expired in his carriage in East Boston yesterday afternoon while being driven from the hotel plaza to his home in Winthrop. Herbert Bradshaw, his coachman, who was driving Mr. Buckley, is detained as a witness at the East Boston police station. Medical Examiner Magrath will perform an autopsy this morning. At the office of Mr. Buckley in the Penn Mutual building it was stated that he died of apoplexy. According to the coachman's story, he had been with Mr. Buckley and several others at the hotel plaza for some time yesterday, and that about 2 o'clock Mr. Buckley complained of feeling ill. He desired to be driven to his home at No. 47 Washington avenue, Winthrop, and they started in his carriage. In Chelsea street, East Boston, Bradshaw says that he looked at Mr. Buckley and thought he looked as if he were fainting. He drove up to the office of Dr. Edward F. O'Shea, who just then arrived in front of his house in an auto. "That man has been dead from five to ten minutes," said the physician after examination. He notified the medical examiner and the East Boston police and Bradshaw was detained for investigation into the circumstances. Mr. Buckley was worth over $100,000. He is one of the largest realty holders in Winthrop, and recently purchased Young's hotel in that town. He leaves a widow, son and daughter.

Hall Long, a former pastor of the Congregational church here, is in town calling upon old friends. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Houghton of Lowell, Mass., are spending two weeks with relatives in town. Mr. Houghton was a former resident and will be remembered as a fine base ball player, who took much pride in the work of the home team. Mrs. W. C. Clifford and her two children left Saturday for a stay of several weeks at her old home in Rozier, Maine. While there she will be present at the marriage of her sister, Miss Annie Black, to Jesse Pothory of Washington, D. C., where he is a successful lawyer. A notable dinner party was recently given at the home of Bingham Caswell, the occasion being the celebration of the completion of Mrs. Caswell's 71st birthday last week. Three of his soldier comrades were present, the oldest person being Cornelius Cutler, who was 85 years of age. The Memorial service was held in the town hall on Saturday and was largely attended, with a program from the pupils of the school. W. N. Bateholder presiding. The speaker for the occasion was Col. Charles L. Young of Springfield, Mass., who gave a very eloquent and forceful address.

HUNDREDS SLAIN IN BATTLE. Mikado Wars Fiercely to Subjugate Rebellious Koreans. Seoul, June 6.—With an average of eight engagements a day, accompanied by heavy casualties, Japan is battling for the pacification of the Hermit kingdom. In the last nine days sixty nine engagements have been fought, in which 672 Koreans were killed, more than a thousand wounded and fifty six taken prisoners. The Japanese losses in the fights are not known. The Koreans are believed to have inflicted losses on the Japanese equal to their own, except in the matter of the captured. The Japanese soldiers are waging a relentless warfare. Fresh Japanese troops are arriving, and unless Japan has the situation well in hand within a week it is announced that the Mikado will literally swamp Korea with his troops. Verdict Set Aside. New York, June 6.—The verdict returned by the jury in the case of the Mutual Life Insurance company, who had been convicted of perjury in connection with the life insurance investigation, was set aside today by the appellate division of the supreme court. Mr. Gillette had been sentenced to serve six months in prison on the conviction.

HOKE SMITH'S DEFEAT IS ASSURED. Vote from Missing Counties Will Not Affect Governorship Result. Atlanta, Ga., June 6.—With a few doubtful counties still to be heard from, the returns show that Joseph M. Brown defeated Hoke Smith for governor in Thursday's Democratic primary by a majority slightly over 14,000. The vote from the missing counties will not materially change Brown's majority.

Never more shall Amphitrite Foulds that beloved snout, Fallen, fallen are the mighty, Behemoth has just pegged out! Nebelhorn, what were we doing When some sceler pinked his side Heard ye not a voice hallooing When the local Hathi died? In what wave-enrapt arena, Where, I think, his playful feats Charmed the sirens, has there been a Falling off of gale receipts? In what wood-embowered pleasure Does the lonely mermaid weep, Orphaned by the obsolescence Of that Two-tails of the deep Louder, though, than all the dirges Over Macrorhinus dead, There beneath the dark blue surges Where he lived and loved and wed, Greater than the grief of ocean, Where the sea-men mop their eyes, Was the present bard's emotion When he heard of that demise, Never to have heard him trumpet, Never to have cast him cakes, That, though I must strive to lump it, That is where the anguillish shone Down the pathway dim and dusty He was snatched to Bades' thrall, Ere they told me that Angusti-rostris lived at all. Still there is a term to weeping, And, although I missed his bloom, Doubtless I shall see him sleeping Sometimes in a glassy tomb, Also I have lately cherished, In my heart a sanguine glow; When they say his tribe has perished, Do these savants really know? What if in some coral atre Proteus, Barnum of the blue, Where the tame sea-horses canter, Keeps a doleful memento, too? What if with his noblest feature Bound some ocean dainty linked, He survives, deluded creature, Unaware that he's extinct? Panel.
